Trusted by some of Europe's best known companies

"OneCoWork has been a key partner for Bumble during our growth journey over the past two years. Thanks to their flexibility and solution-oriented mindset it has been incredibly easy to grow our team and expand our office space - now we have a great Tech Hub in Barcelona, and it is a treat to come and work from the offices every day."

Andrea Moreno

People Operations Service Lead
BUMBLE

"OneCoWork has been the perfect landing pad for N26 in Barcelona, and a great way for us to integrate into the ecosystem. The spaces are beautiful, our team feels right at home, and the level of service is truly exceptional."

About OneCoWork Winckley Square

"Preston is ideal for our first flexible workspace location in the UK. The city is home to major businesses and benefits from close proximity to innovation centers like the University of Central Lancashire.

We strongly believe that our new building in the heart of Preston will play a pivotal role in the area, being more than just shared offices – they are incubators for collaboration, innovation, and community building.

Our aim is to have as large an impact on the local business and entrepreneurial ecosystem as we possibly can!"

Ben Nachoom
